

MR. DOMINIC MARINO

Marino-Russell Nuptials Spoken in New Orleans

The marriage of Miss Hilda Dorothy Russell, daughter of Adam David Russell of Waveland and the late Mrs. Russell, to Dr. Joseph Dominic Marino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Marino of New Orleans, was solemnized at a nuptial mass at Holy Name of Jesus Church in New Orleans Saturday, Nov. 18. Rev. Daniel O'Callaghan, S.J., heard the vows of the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with white gladioli and stock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length princess style dress of white tulle de sole and re-embroidered Alencon lace with a high, slightly scooped neckline, long sleeves forming points over her hands and a chapel train falling from the bustle. A flat bow trimmed with roses fashioned of tulle de sole and lace. Veiling of silk tulle was gathered to a crown of seed pearls. Her cascade bouquet was of white and purple orchids with lilies of the valley and stock.

The maid of honor, Miss Anna Frances Nichols, and bridesmaids, Misses Barbara Montano and Norma Gaudreau were in scoop necked, full skirted tulle de sole dresses with bows forming small bustles, their headpieces were double bows of tulle de sole and lace. Each carried a cascade bouquet of white and purple orchids with lilies of the valley and stock.

Joseph Spedale was Dr. Marino's best man. Dr. Sesto Lococo and Anthony Chisari were groomsmen. Russell Esser, a cousin of the bride, and Warren Lemonier were ushers.

Mrs. Adrian Chagnard, the bride's sister, wearing a brown silk print with brown accessories and Mrs. Dominic Marino, mother of the groom, wearing a blue vest with matching accessories, and corsages of white and purple orchids, received at the reception at the Sheraton-Charles Hotel.

For traveling to Florida the bride chose a suit of brown wool, brown accessories and a moss green feathered hat. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Judith Flach Becomes Bride of Sheldon Prevou

The wedding of Miss Judith Sophia Flach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Flach of New Orleans, to Sheldon Simon Prevou, son of Mrs. Edwin Prevou of Bay St. Louis and the late Mr. Prevou, was solemnized Nov. 4 at a nuptial mass at St. Francis de Sales Church in New Orleans with Rev. Cunningham officiating at the double ring ceremony. Palms and spray arrangements of white gladioli adorned the altar.

Recorded by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white delustered satin with appliques of Alencon lace and a full skirt ending in a chapel length train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a headpiece trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white cymbidium orchids and lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Miss Nancy Claire Flach was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Ethel E. Pascale of Slidell, La., and Doris A. Cross of Camden, Ark. Their frocks were of Kelly green satin with rose appliques. They wore headbands of matching green satin in chapel bows and carried bouquets of gold, orange, bronze and yellow in a cascade arrangement.

Henry J. Prevou of Bay St. Louis was best man for his brother.

Groomsmen were Reno J. Neccaise of New Orleans and James LePoint of Bay St. Louis. Ushering were Barry M. Flach, brother of the bride, and Sterling J. Beaulieu, her uncle, both of New Orleans.

A reception followed at LePoint's Boulevard Room which was decorated with palms and gladioli for the occasion. The bride's mother received in a gown of champagne delustered satin with matching accessories and green cymbidium orchids at the shoulder. The groom's mother was in a royal blue dress of jersey with black patent accessories and a white hat. Her corsage was a white orchid.

For their wedding trip to Chattanooga, Tenn., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Prevou, the bride changed to an oyster white suit with magenta accessories adding the orchid from her bouquet at the shoulder. They are at home now at 649 1/2 Phosphor Ave., Metairie, La.

Attending the ceremonies from here in addition to the

Pearl Harbor Lesson

Read more than many of our readers have some personal knowledge of Dec. 7, 1941, just as we do. Then a Marine stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C., (at that time called New River), was taking a nap in Charleston, S. C., that Sunday morning on the first day of a two-day leave when a cousin came to him to tell of the radio reports. He was back at New River that night and never did get that leave.

One of us with personal memories of that specific day 20 years ago were at the most slightly inconvenienced—out of more than 2,400 who were killed at Pearl Harbor and their families, or the far greater number who in the ensuing four years were killed or maimed or tortured in the Pacific.

In beginning that on this day we remember with respect and gratitude all those who sacrificed so much, whether in Europe or Pacific theater of war, so we can now have a peaceful life. It is even more important, if more colossal, we profit by experience from their sacrifice and from the lasting effects of the loss of battleship row and most of our fleet at Pearl Harbor. We were caught napping.

Dec. 6, 1941, this country, notwithstanding diplomatic assurances, was on reasonably good terms with Japan, or so thought. Such is not the case with Russia or Communism today and we are forewarned, but are we taking heed of warning?

In the majority of wars are started without any prior declaration of war and the initiator, by being such, has a military advantage. Pearl Harbor should teach us to be militarily alert and ALERT. Also we should remember the caution by the Lee in The Day of the Saxon: "Nations never advance their doom, the retreat to it. . . . When we consider that characteristic, now so dominant in the Anglo-Saxon race, of allowing individual wants to take precedence over the vital interests of national existence, we find in it every source of our immobility and decay." Although written in 1912, this perhaps have been written of us yesterday.

The biggest tribute we can pay to those who died at Pearl Harbor 20 years ago is to profit from OUR mistakes that caused their deaths. Otherwise those who died there may have been in vain.

Why Not Here?

General look at the bills for materials paid each month by school supervisors shows that a high percentage is purchased outside Hancock County, and we are not referring to purchases as a result of competitive bidding.

It is undoubtedly true that some items are not available in Hancock County and that frequently, because of travel distance involved, it makes sense to purchase from Picadilly for use in the northwest part of the county. Nevertheless, it is the taxpayers of Hancock County whose money is involved and the merchants in the Bay-Waveland area pay a percentage of these taxes while those outside the county pay none.

The few times this editor has covered the meeting of the school board, the only bill, one for lumber, that has been discussed to the extent of attorneys being brought in, involved a county fine. Certainly, within the county there are several concerns that handle lumber.

We suggest that our local merchants, if they want this business, check with the board of supervisors to find out why they don't get all the routine business when they handle the lumber at competitive prices. We believe the board is morally bound to spend as much of Hancock County Tax money in Hancock County as is feasible.

About Planning Our Readers Write

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
 The Waveland Town Council at its meeting on Friday, Nov. 24, unanimously voted to adopt a zoning, or land use and street plan, for the Town of Waveland.

The purpose of this ordinance is to promote the general welfare of the inhabitants of the Town of Waveland, and to protect property owners, as it applies to both residences and commercial establishments.

With a situation that will exist in our area in the near future, we are compelled to take positive action to assure our citizens of this needed protection.

This first step in a comprehensive planning and zoning plan will embrace subdivision control, certain areas zoned for residences, areas zoned for commercial, and regulations adopted for general land use, including new building regulations.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
 May I say a good word for the much abused teenager?

One night last week four very polite young teenagers came by on a scavenger hunt. Among the items they were seeking was an old license plate, which I gave them with the request that they please return it. They not only took the trouble to return it, but on the porch the next morning I found, with the license plate, a package of cookies to boot. Thank you, youngsters, those thoughtful acts do not go unnoticed.

MRS. R. L. K.
 Bay St. Louis.

P.S. The cookies were good too.

Hancock General Mrs. Seal Elected Auxiliary President

Mrs. Leo W. Seal was elected president of the Hancock General Hospital auxiliary at its meeting Monday at the hospital. She will take office in January succeeding Mrs. James M. Robert.

The slate offered by Mrs. Sam Whitfield, chairman of the nominating committee, and unanimously approved included Mrs. A. J. Ramage, first vice president; Mrs. Harold Powell, second vice president; Mrs. H. M. Shepard, treasurer; Mrs. T. T. Robin, recording secretary; and Mrs. Archibald Bruff, corresponding secretary.

Named to the board of directors were Mrs. J. R. Shaddin, Miss Kathleen Renshaw and Mrs. A. P. Smith.

Need for more widespread support of the auxiliary was discussed at length in view of the heavy load of patients at the hospital and additional duties being taken over by the auxiliary. It was noted that 54 members failed to pay dues this year. The new year begins in January. Dues are $2 for active membership, $1.50 for associates and $25 for life.

source whereas the supervisors previously controlled how much the sheriff could spend on this item.

Beat 3 Supervisor Charles Lavinghouse inquired why the automobile license tag settlement had not augmented the general fund more and Sheriff Gerald V. Price noted it got $7,000 from this source. After the luncheon break, Mrs. Gerald Price, Jr., chief office deputy for the sheriff, explained the method of computing the settlement. Existing funds are $500 short of meeting the docket and the board toyed with Lader's suggestion of paying all but that amount and finally went along with Lavinghouse's motion to borrow $1,000 from road and bridge bond fund. Hubbard asked the clerk to inquire from the state auditing department how to meet December and January claims in light of the 25 per cent limitation on borrowing.

To ease the deflated seawall maintenance fund which stood at $337.78, $7,000 was borrowed from the road and bridge bond fund after Hubbard and Gex checked the books and decided this was the best method. Last month's $5,000 transfer was repaid. Hubbard opined that when the bond sinking fund is built up from gas tax revenue in the next five or six months, the surplus can be diverted to seawall maintenance. This docket was $6,862.22.

The remaining balance of $3,172.81 in the hospital building fund was transferred back to the seawall fund from which $50,000 originally was allocated after the board was notified a shed over the pump at Hancock General Hospital had been completed wrapping up water tower and system construction.

Other transfers authorized were $4,000 from the Beat 5 fund to the beat's special state aid project fund and repayment by Beat 4 of a loan from Beat 5. In checking the docket, Hubbard found his beat had been charged erroneously by a supplier for purchases made by Pearl River County's Beat 5.

At the request of the county health department, $250 was transferred from the health and sick fund to assist indigent children through the Parent-Teacher Assn. health fund.

It was decided that, where the county is responsible for payment to the state for retirement contributions because an employee not being given opportunity to participate when the county came under the system in 1953 as recently ruled by the attorney general, the fund from which the payment should be made was the best fund of the beat in which the employee lived. This came up in the case of Willie Hoda, who retired in 1959, and the $491 will be taken out of Lavinghouse's Beat 3 funds. Necaise commented, "Charlie, you shouldn't commiserate. He's one of your friends. I had to do it for one of my friends."

and will presumably be based on these engineering studies after recommendation by the planning commission.

tion, at least two large tracts under an agricultural lease are not fenced and board members understand that such being the case the lessee is not fulfilling his contract.

It is in this connection that the contract made about two years ago with the state comes into the picture. It provides that all 16th Section lands not then under lease and needing reforestation be planted with seedling. Literally enforced this means that those families living without lease on 16th Section land would have to move and the area planted. Hubbard suggested asking the state to agree for these homesteaders to keep their house and two or three acres under 25-year agricultural lease. He added he didn't think the county should pay for the needed survey to accomplish this, to which Lavinghouse replied "He (the homesteader) ought to pay; he's been using it."

Hubbard then pointed out two large tracts under agricultural lease, one to a non-resident, and used for grazing cattle but not fenced and brought up the question if the county could not break the lease. Discussion indicated the board felt these and similar leases were not qualifying as agricultural. Board Attorney Lucien M. Gex was not present at this point and the board passed on to other matters with no action taken.

Board Holds
Buying Radio,
CD Aid OK'd

Acquisition of additional radio and civil defense radio equipment for Hancock County was tabled again by the board of supervisors Monday on the basis of a shortfalls after Rep. Clarence M. Lachner, county CD director, requested approval of federal matching funds.

Lachner said he had been notified Uncle Sam would pay half the cost on a proper expenditure up to $4,270 for purchase of eight mobile radio unit and one base station. The civil defense agreement calls for the existing base station in the sheriff's office to be moved to a north county location to be designated as CD headquarters. Lachner recommended that one mobile unit be placed in the county CD chief's car in event of disaster.

Bids were secured some time ago on new radio equipment but tabled because no funds were available to make a purchase. Conco which had held its price open, notified the board it was cancelling the offer.

Sheriff Gerald V. Price returned his offer to borrow half the necessary funds himself if the board would allocate the $3,000 he imposed in the liquor hijacking case last Christmas at Kila for the equipment. He warned that he is subject now to a fine from the Federal Communications Commission for the equipment he is using which is not up to its regulations.

pleted this week while work on the well to supply water for the industry started Monday.

Booch Kennedy, city engineer, is making a preliminary survey for cost estimation purposes of a sidewalk on the west side of Dunbar Avenue from U. S. 90 to North Bay Elementary School, reported Mayor John A. Scalfide.

The mayor also said that he and H. H. Shattuck would be in Washington next week to find out what federal assistance the county and city might be able to obtain so as to better handle the anticipated influx of people resulting from the establishing the NASA test site in the Gainesville area. In particular they hope to see Dr. Sherwood Gates, chief of the southeastern division of the Area Redevelopment Authority, and to find out what aid might be available under the federal water pollution act.

Glover reported on his trip last week in Washington for the hearings before the Federal Power Commission on the seven wholesale rate increases put into effect under bond by United Gas Pipe Line Co. since 1955. For Bay St. Louis the combined raises were from 23.9 cents to 33.7 cents, per 1,000 cubic feet. He said Bay St. Louis was one of 93 wholesale users of gas supplied by United in the five districts involved and that the hearing was reset for Dec. 11 to permit opposing parties to try to work out an amicable settlement. The FPC examiner suggested this procedure adding, according to Glover, "If you can't come to some agreement, we'll settle it for you."

are scheduled for completion at different times but neither Biting nor Bateman had a copy of their contract at the meeting so they were unable to advise specifically when each part was to be completed. At Planning Commission Member Fred Wagner's request Biting said he would furnish the commission with this information.

Joe B. Burrow, another commission member, remarked that he didn't believe the county was prepared for what is in store for it with the coming of the NASA Mississippi Test Facility, saying that the estimated $400,000,000 to be spent on the project would be before that have "bought the whole county lock, stock and barrel, including the chickens and eggs". In this connection he suggested an annexation study.

To this member E. M. Brignac questioned the city's financial ability to provide the necessary services such as water, gas, schools, garbage collection, etc., to any area annexed and pointed out that some of these services are not available to all the area now included in Bay St. Louis. Burrow replied that it might take a five or ten million dollar issue but "the Bay can't stay in this little area".

The planning commission set the last Tuesday of each month as a regular meeting date and elected Howard Adams secretary, H. H. Shattuck, chairman, presided.

Power Co-op...

While some of the checks were for small amounts a few of the larger electric users during these three years received well over $100, according to H. H. Shattuck, manager of the utility.

Shattuck explained this represented the cash balance credited to members during the three years involved, pointing out that when association members pay their bills any amount not used to pay current operating expenses is considered contributed capital and is used to repay REA loans and establish reserves. By-laws provide that member contributed capital may be refunded when the association's capital equals at least 25 per cent of its assets, and that refunds must be in the order the contributions were made.

Shattuck expressed hope that "additional refunds will be made in the future" when the financial condition permits. He said the next refund, if made, would represent the member capital contributed during 1947. Hancock County members of the nine-man board of directors are: George Curet, Ohio Rester and Forrest Summers.

bridge and travelled more than 100 feet before it flipped over to the opposite side of the creek, throwing the occupants into the brush. They were headed toward Kila when the mishap occurred about 1 p.m.

Deputy Sheriff Lander Necaise and Beat A. Constable Jervis Moran who investigated, listed the injured as:

Herman Page, 22, contusions and abrasions of the right leg; Daniel Swanier, lacerations and abrasions of the face and back; Winston Ausmer, 16, lacerations of the scalp, and Edward Benait, 20, scalp lacerations.

The highway patrol reported damages of $600 to a car driven by H. R. Hickman of Poplarville and $500 to that of Allican N. Favre of Kila in a collision on U. S. 90 and North Beach Blvd., Saturday.

Albert H. Greer, Jr., Negro serviceman stationed at Keesler, was fined by Justice of the Peace Nellus Rhodes after pleading guilty to a reckless driving charge resulting from a collision about 3 p.m. Saturday at U. S. 90 and Dunbar Avenue, according to Deputy Gerard Favre who investigated.

Greer, in a 1961 Chevrolet, was headed east when he ran into the rear of a 1953 Mercury operated by Sammy Savage, Negro stationed at Camp Leroy Johnston, which was stopped for the red light on 90.

Harry Hears... All-Star Nominees

Seeing everybody else is picking an All-American team, we'll get into the act, too. On the strength of what we've seen via television and films, what we've read, and on the basis of statistics, here it is: Pat Trammell of Alabama at quarterback, Ernie Davis of Syracuse at halfback, Bob Ferguson of Ohio State at fullback, and Jimmy Saxton of Texas at the other halfback position.

In the line, we like Greg Mathews of Navy and Bill Miller of Miami at ends, Billy Neighbors of Alabama and Ed Blaine of Missouri at tackle, Ray Winston of LSU and Jon Rasmussen of Colorado at guards, and Alex Kroll of Rutgers at center.

In the Southeastern Conference, our all-league picks: ends, Tom Hutchinson, Kentucky, and Ralph Smith, Mississippi; tackles, Billy Neighbors, Alabama, and Jim Dunaway, Mississippi; guards, Roy Winston, LSU and Harold Erickson, Georgia Tech; center, Irv Goode, Kentucky, quarterback, Pat Trammell, Alabama; halfbacks, Jerry Sovall, LSU and Wendell Harris, LSU, fullback, Earl Gros, LSU.

We Rank As Follows

Our final national rankings would be: 1, Alabama; 2, LSU; 3, Ohio State; 4, Mississippi; 5, Texas; 6, Minnesota; 7, Colorado; 8, Arkansas; 9, Missouri; 10, Georgia Tech.

Our choice for most valuable S.E.C. player would be Trammell; for SEC sophomore of the year, Mallon Faircloth of Tennessee; Paul (Bear) Bryant of Alabama and LSU's Paul Dietzel would tie for Coach of the Year.

Looking back over the collegiate season, the usual amount of upsets took place. Who can explain games like TCU-Texas, TCU-Ohio State, Minnesota-Wisconsin, Virginia-Maryland, LSU-Rice, Mississippi State-Auburn, and Tennessee-Georgia Tech? Attendance was high, thrills were plentiful, and only an increasing amount of total injuries marred the campaign.

Cage Season Returns

College basketball now has crept into the picture. On the national scene, Ohio State is the pre-season choice of most of the so-called "experts" with Cincinnati not far behind. Ohio State has a sure-fire All-American in O. J. Smith, Jerry Lucas, their do-it-all center who led the Buckeyes to the NCAA crown two years ago and into the finals last season.

The Southeastern Conference, not considered one of the top basketball hotbeds in the country, looks to be in better shape this season with several good clubs.

Mississippi State, the defending champions, have four starters returning from last year, including 6-7 forward Leland Mitchell, who is being switched to center this season.

Tulane has almost everybody back. Jack Ardon, 6-9, is one of the conference's best rebounders and scores big too. Junior forward Jim Kervin has as deadly a jump shot as anyone and in the Greenies' first two games has averaged 25 points per contest. Guard Wayne Pearl and forward Mike Mihalovic are two other good players.

LSU could be the dark-horse of the conference. The Tigers beat Loyola, a powerful quintet, 58-49 Saturday night. Backcourt aces George Martin and Ellis Cooper and towering center Tom Conklin give opponents plenty to think about.

Kentucky, as always, is one of the best. The Wildcats aren't rated highly in pre-season polls, but after listening to the Kentucky-Miami and Kentucky-Southern California games on radio last week, we're convinced the Wildcats are good. Larry Pursiful is the only returnee from last season. Pursiful is a guard. Center Charlie (Cotton) Nash, a Lake Charles, La. import, while only a sophomore, is a good prospect, and several others have performed well for Kentucky.

Ole Miss could be another surprise team. While the Rebels aren't rated high, four starters return. 6-7 center Sterling Ainsworth will lead the Rebels and he will have to get some support from teammates if the Rebels are to beat the aforementioned teams. We saw the Rebels play Kentucky last year in Jackson and had the pleasure of meeting Coach Frank (Country) Graham and the Ole Miss team. For that reason, they're a slight sentimental favorite of ours.

Coaching at State

Mississippi State, Monday, named offensive backfield coach Paul Davis to succeed Wade Walker as head football coach at the University. Walker hadn't done as good a job at State as alumni would like, and we have to agree with that, but we don't think hiring an assistant is going to solve the Maroons' problems one bit.

For a time, it appeared State might be able to lure a big-name coach to replace Walker, but it just didn't work out. Don't be surprised if Walker, no matter how bad his record was at State, goes on to another college and becomes a winner. Just look at the ex-State coaches who did. Among them: Darrell Royal of Texas and Murry Warmath of Minnesota, both of whom have teams in the top six nationally.

Tulane Recruiting

We were reading the football guide sent to members of the press from Tulane one day and came across what we think is an interesting development. The big problem at Tulane is recruiting for the football team.

The basketball squad apparently has no such problem. On the final page of the football guide, a brief preview of the cage season shows Tulane with a 14-player squad. One is from below the Mason-Dixon Line. Ten are from Indiana, two (Ardon and Kervin, the top scorers) are from New Jersey, and one is from Illinois. Only L. V. McGinty from Slidell, is a Southerner. Of the 12 players seeing action in the Florida Southern game Monday, 10 were from Indiana and two from New Jersey.

It is an established fact that the best basketball players are from Indiana, so Tulane's cage recruiting system can't be too far off the beam.

B.E. Bourgeois Arrested on Spirits Charge

Bernard Emile Bourgeois, 33, of 756 Robert St., Waveland, was held for the February federal grand jury on moonshining charges after arraignment before U.S. Commissioner Irene Humphreys at Biloxi Wednesday following his arrest by federal Alcoholic and Tobacco Tax Unit agents at his home Tuesday afternoon.

Released under bond, he faces charges of possession and operation of an illicit distillery, possession of mash and non-tax-paid whiskey.

Bourgeois attempted to flee when agents went to serve him with a federal search warrant and was caught after a brief chase in his stockinged feet. Destroyed on his property were a 12-gallon drum pot still, a 60-gallon drum, 14 60-gallon capacity fermenters, 371 gallons of sugar rye mash and two and a half gallons of moonshine whiskey, arresting agents said. They also confiscated a 1950 Chevrolet on the premises which contained two gallons of mash.

Peterson Pops 41 Points Over Pass

Bay High Tigers won their second victory of the season Tuesday night here with a 62-58 win over Pass Christian led by a sensational 41 points by senior guard Ronnie Peterson. Pass High managed a split of the night's double-header by downing the Tigerettes 52-40 in the first game.

The Tigers took an early lead, but never could pull away from an experienced Pirate team that had all its entire starters back from last season. Bay High led 11-9 after the first quarter, and increased the margin to 26-22 in halftime.

Pass High fought back in the fourth quarter to decrease the lead to 40-39 but the Tigers hit the nets for 22 points in the final stanza with Peterson doing most of the scoring. Peterson amazed the spectators with a dazzling display of one-hand push them jump shots, layups from all directions, and foul throws, in the fourth quarter, the Tiger captain time and again sank free throws and other shots when the Bay High lead was almost nothing.

Peterson's 41 points was the highest total scored in the Bay High gym in a boys' game in many years. Forward Richard Schaefer was the only Tiger in double figures with 11, while guard Wayne Greenes scored seven and forward William Pedce three. Ken Pike led the Pirates with 17.

The Pirate girls led at every quarter break over the Tigerettes, although the local sextet stayed within reach for most of the game. Pass High took a 12-8 first quarter advantage, led 21-20 at intermission, increased the margin to 35-29 after three periods, and scored 17 points in the fourth quarter to put the contest on ice.

High scorer for Bay High was Susan Doering with 19 points and Carol Bourgeois had 14. Henrietta Wesovich, a jump shot artist, and Sandra Martin, both of Pass Christian got 21 points.

Bay High's scheduled game tonight against Long Beach has been postponed to Tuesday, December 19. The Tigers go to Ocean Springs Saturday. Coach Wilmer Seymour's boys now are 2-1 for the season and the girls have an 0-4 mark.

ROCKS DO BATTLE - Waldo Caceres, Wayman Carr, and two unidentified St. Stanislaus players fight for a rebound and prepare to bring the ball down court in the Rockchaw-Picayune game played at SSC gym Tuesday night.

Rocks Drop Opener

Picayune's floor shots proved as much for St. Stanislaus' eagerness to overcome as they dropped their season opener here Tuesday night 63-48.

The first Picayune quintet was dropping 60 per cent of its shots from the court while the Rocks were only able to get about 30 per cent of theirs through the basket.

Stanislaus managed to keep the Maroon Tide in check most of the first quarter which ended 11-9 in Picayune's favor but the gap widened in the next quarter when the Rocks scored 16 points to Picayune's 29 and never could catch up.

Mike Gore was high scorer for Stanislaus with 17 points while Waldo Caceres added 14. McKee led Picayune with 24.

The Rock junior varsity coached by Billy Rhodes lost a heartbreaker after leading until the last two minutes of play. Final score was 41-38.

Stanislaus JV's play Bay High tonight at Bay High while the varsity goes against Pascagoula Friday night in the Gulfport tournament.

Hawks Repeat Win In 1st Tournament

The Poplarville invitational tournament trophy was back at Hancock North Central School this week after the Hawk cagers successfully defended the title they won in the first staging of the tournament last year in the opening tourney of the season. Coach Billy Sills' boys topped Sumrall 48-46 in the finals Saturday night after winning quarter and semi-final games by narrow margins.

The Hawks' closest call was against Poplarville Saturday

Hawks, Tigers Clash Tuesday, Bearcats Beat

The North Central-Bay High basketball game on the Hawks' court Tuesday night takes its spot on the county sports calendar for the coming week. The girls will meet at 7 p.m. with the boys' game scheduled about 8:15.

The Hawks will play host Friday night to the Poplarville squad which gave them a run for their money in last week's Poplarville invitational. Both boys and girls are to play and the band and majorettes will put on a half-time show.

Long Beach was the Hawks' latest victim, losing 75-51 Tuesday night at the coast city. Berlin Ladner and Donald Wayne Ladner, whom Coach Billy Sills lists as a second stringer, each snagged 17 points with O. J. Peterson picked up 16 and Lionel Hoda for 13. Jerry Sculla was high for the Bearcats with 17.

Coach Sills says he really has got 10 first string boys, two full teams, right now and is working on lining up a third top squad. He's told his boys if LSU can have three first string football teams, there's no reason the Hawks can't field the same in basketball. He's open for nominations to name the individual squads.

Gun, Rod Meets

The Gun and Rod Club will meet at 8 p.m. today at Trapp's Knock-Knock, Clarence M. Ladner, president, has announced.

Harrison Trounces Bay High

Harrison Central took both ends of a doubleheader from Bay High Thursday night at Lyman, winning the girls' game 58-47 and the boys' contest 81-63 in Gulf Coast Conference games.

The Red Rebelettes handed the Tigerettes their third loss of the season in the opening game, pulling away in the final quarter. Bay High stayed within five points most of the way, but its four top guards fouled out in the final quarter and Harrison Central eased in to their 11-point win.

Carol Bourgeois of Bay High led all scorers with 26 points. Susan Doering added 12 points.

Waveland HD Yule Party Next Tuesday
